Monitoring & Evaluation Methods	(Please describe in 100 words or less)
Monitoring is defined as a systematic review of a funded program based upon the requirements of a contract, rules, regulations, policies and/or State and Local laws. It identifies the degree to which a program or operation accomplishes the activities specified in a contract/application and how it complies with requirements. Describe your process to be used to monitor on a regular basis. Include who will be responsible, frequency, and documentation of monitoring activities.
Evaluation Methods is the process to determine the value or amount of success in achieving a pre-determined program or operational goal. Evaluations can identify program strengths and weaknesses to improve the program. Evaluations can verify if the program is really running as originally planned. Describe the process to be used to evaluate the attainment of the objectives. Include what will be measured, who will conduct the evaluation, when it will be conducted, and how results will be used.

Features of Youth Development Settings: Please describe in 100 words (maximum) per feature how the program for which you are requesting funding addresses each of the Features of Positive Development Settings below.

The Features of Positive Development Settings are processes or “active ingredients” that community programs should use in designing programs to facilitate positive youth development. We stress that the implementation of these features need to vary across programs precisely because they have diverse clientele and different constraints, resources, and goals (source: Community Programs to Promote Youth Development, National Research Council, Institute of Medicine). Please refer to the list of website resources listed below for further guidance. Additionally, you may contact your Local Youth Bureau and/or Regional Youth Development Coordinators from the Office of Youth Development (http://www.ocfs.state.ny.us/main/Youth/regional\_contacts.asp).
